

Working with Proyecto Titi, Disney has helped communities in Colombia plant more than 100,000 trees to restore cotton-top tamarin habitats. Learn more about Proyecto Titi.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney has supported conservation organizations working to help protect all 5 species of rhino across more than 10 countries.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

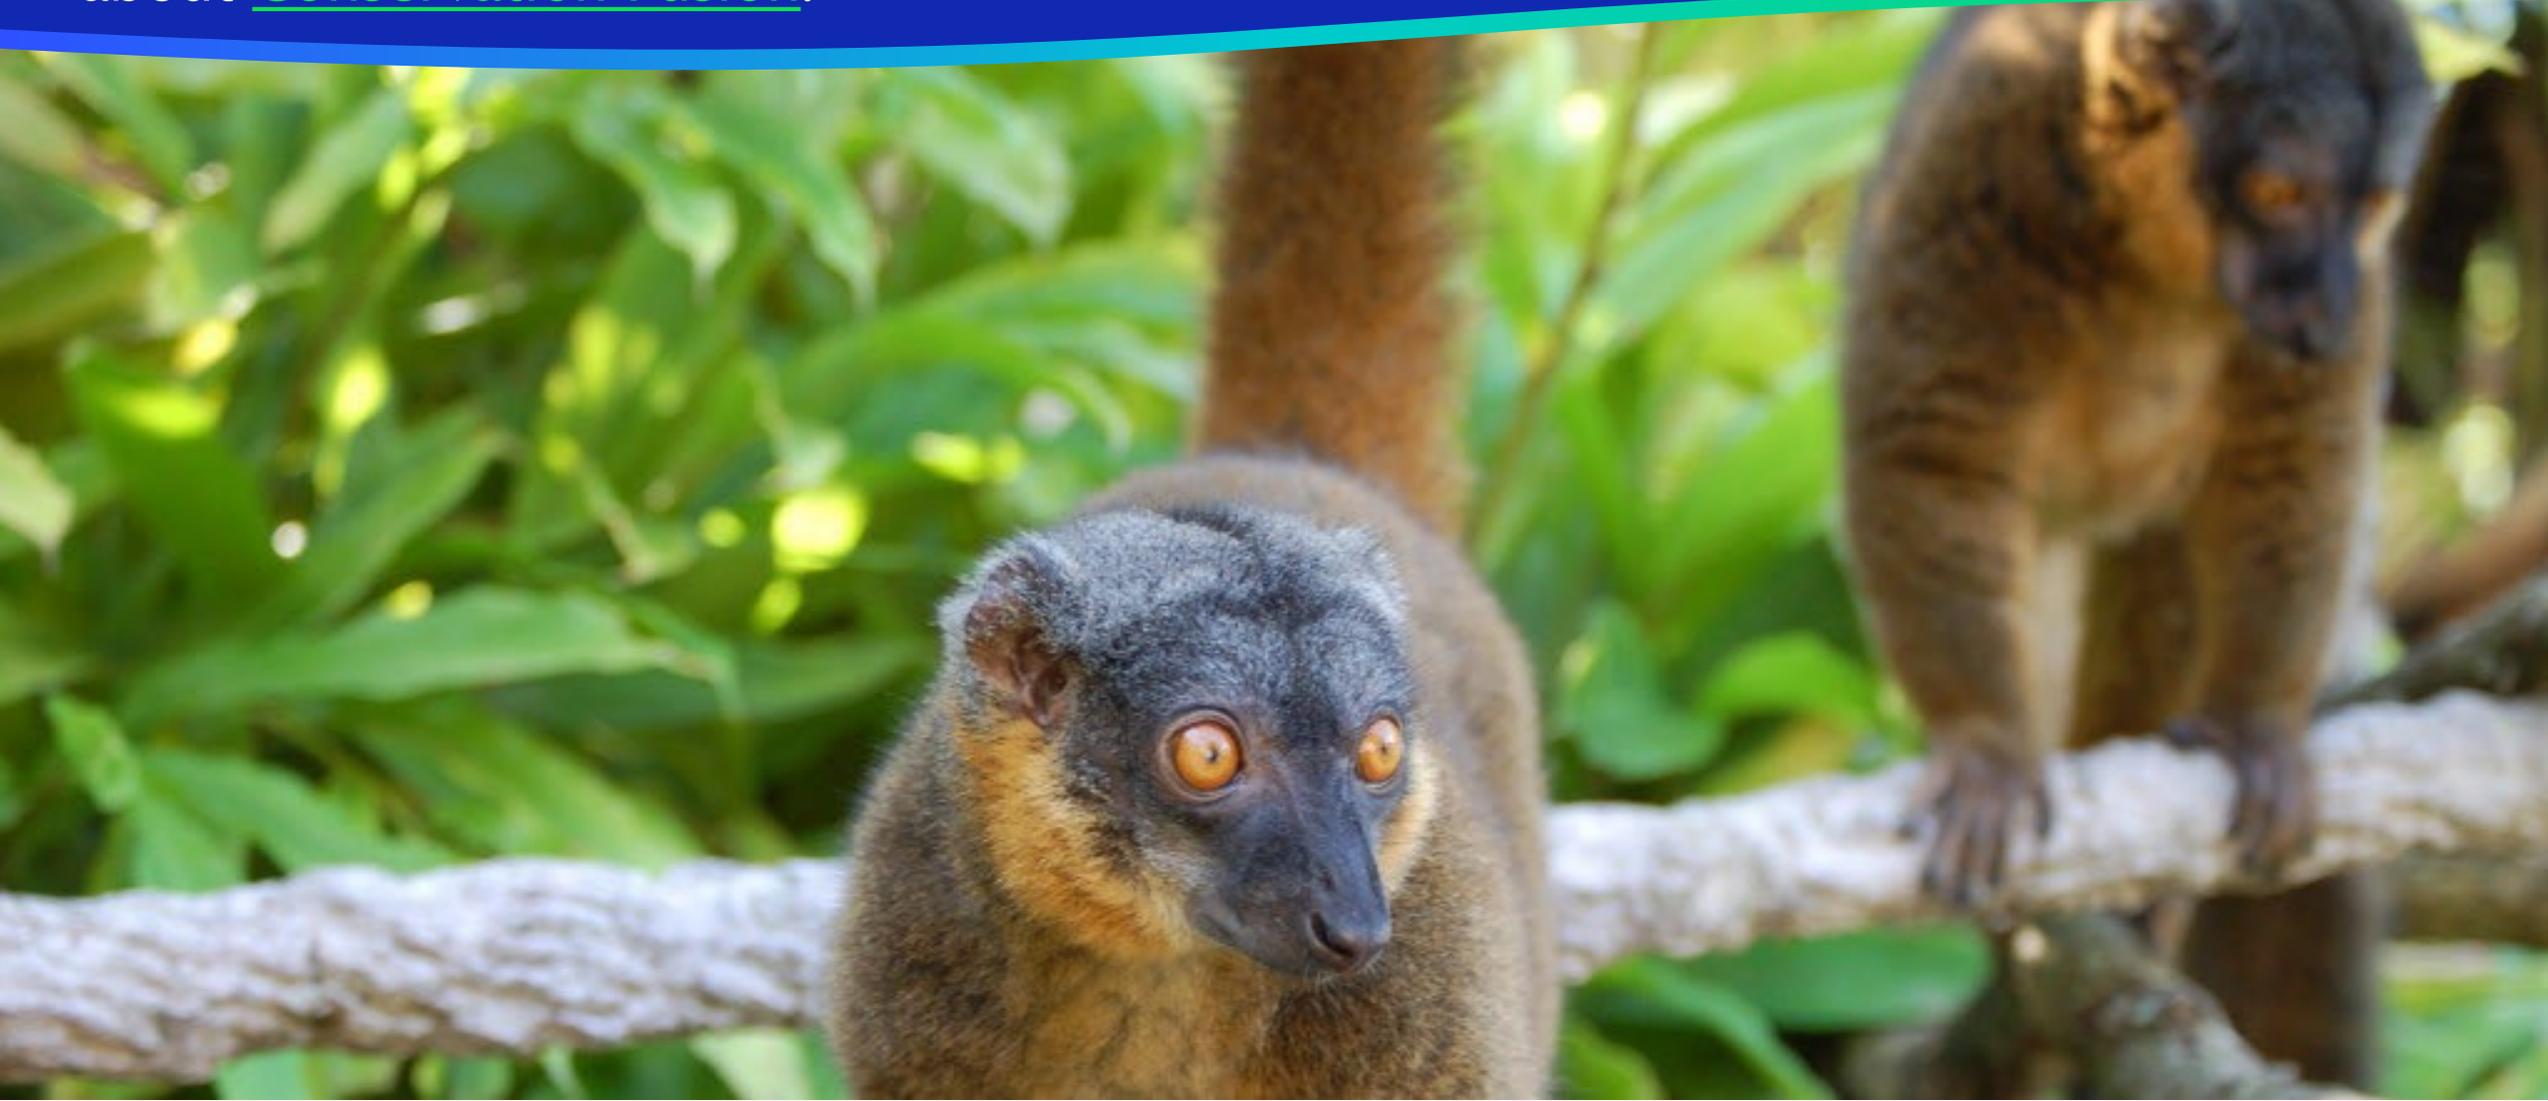

Disney collaborates with San Diego Zoo Wildlife Alliance to support efforts to protect giraffes on over 1 million acres in Kenya. Learn more about the Twiga Walinzi initiative at San Diego Zoo Wildlife Alliance.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Collaborating with Conservation Fusion, Disney has helped schoolchildren plant nearly 280,000 trees for lemurs in Madagascar. Learn more about Conservation Fusion.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

For more than 25 years, Disney has helped provide guard dogs to African farmers to keep livestock and cheetahs safe.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney built the first coral nurseries in The Bahamas, which have cared for more than 2,000 coral fragments including critically endangered species.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Grace is named for the Gorilla Rehabilitation and Conservation Education (GRACE) Center, built in the Democratic Republic of the Congo with Disney's help. Learn more about GRACE.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Over 1,000 acres of solar panels are already online or will be soon. Together these solar arrays will supply up to 40% of Walt Disney World Resort's electricity, on average.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Since 2001, Disney has supported nonprofit organizations to monitor zebra populations and restore their habitats.

Disney animal care specialists have rehabilitated and released more than 300 sick and injured sea turtles to date.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney scientists were among the first to discover elephants are afraid of bees, inspiring the use of beehive fences to reduce conflict between farmers and elephants. Learn more about elephants and bees here.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney has assisted in the successful rehabilitation and release of more than 26 West Indian manatees.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Photos produced under the authority of USFWS Permit N14MA770191

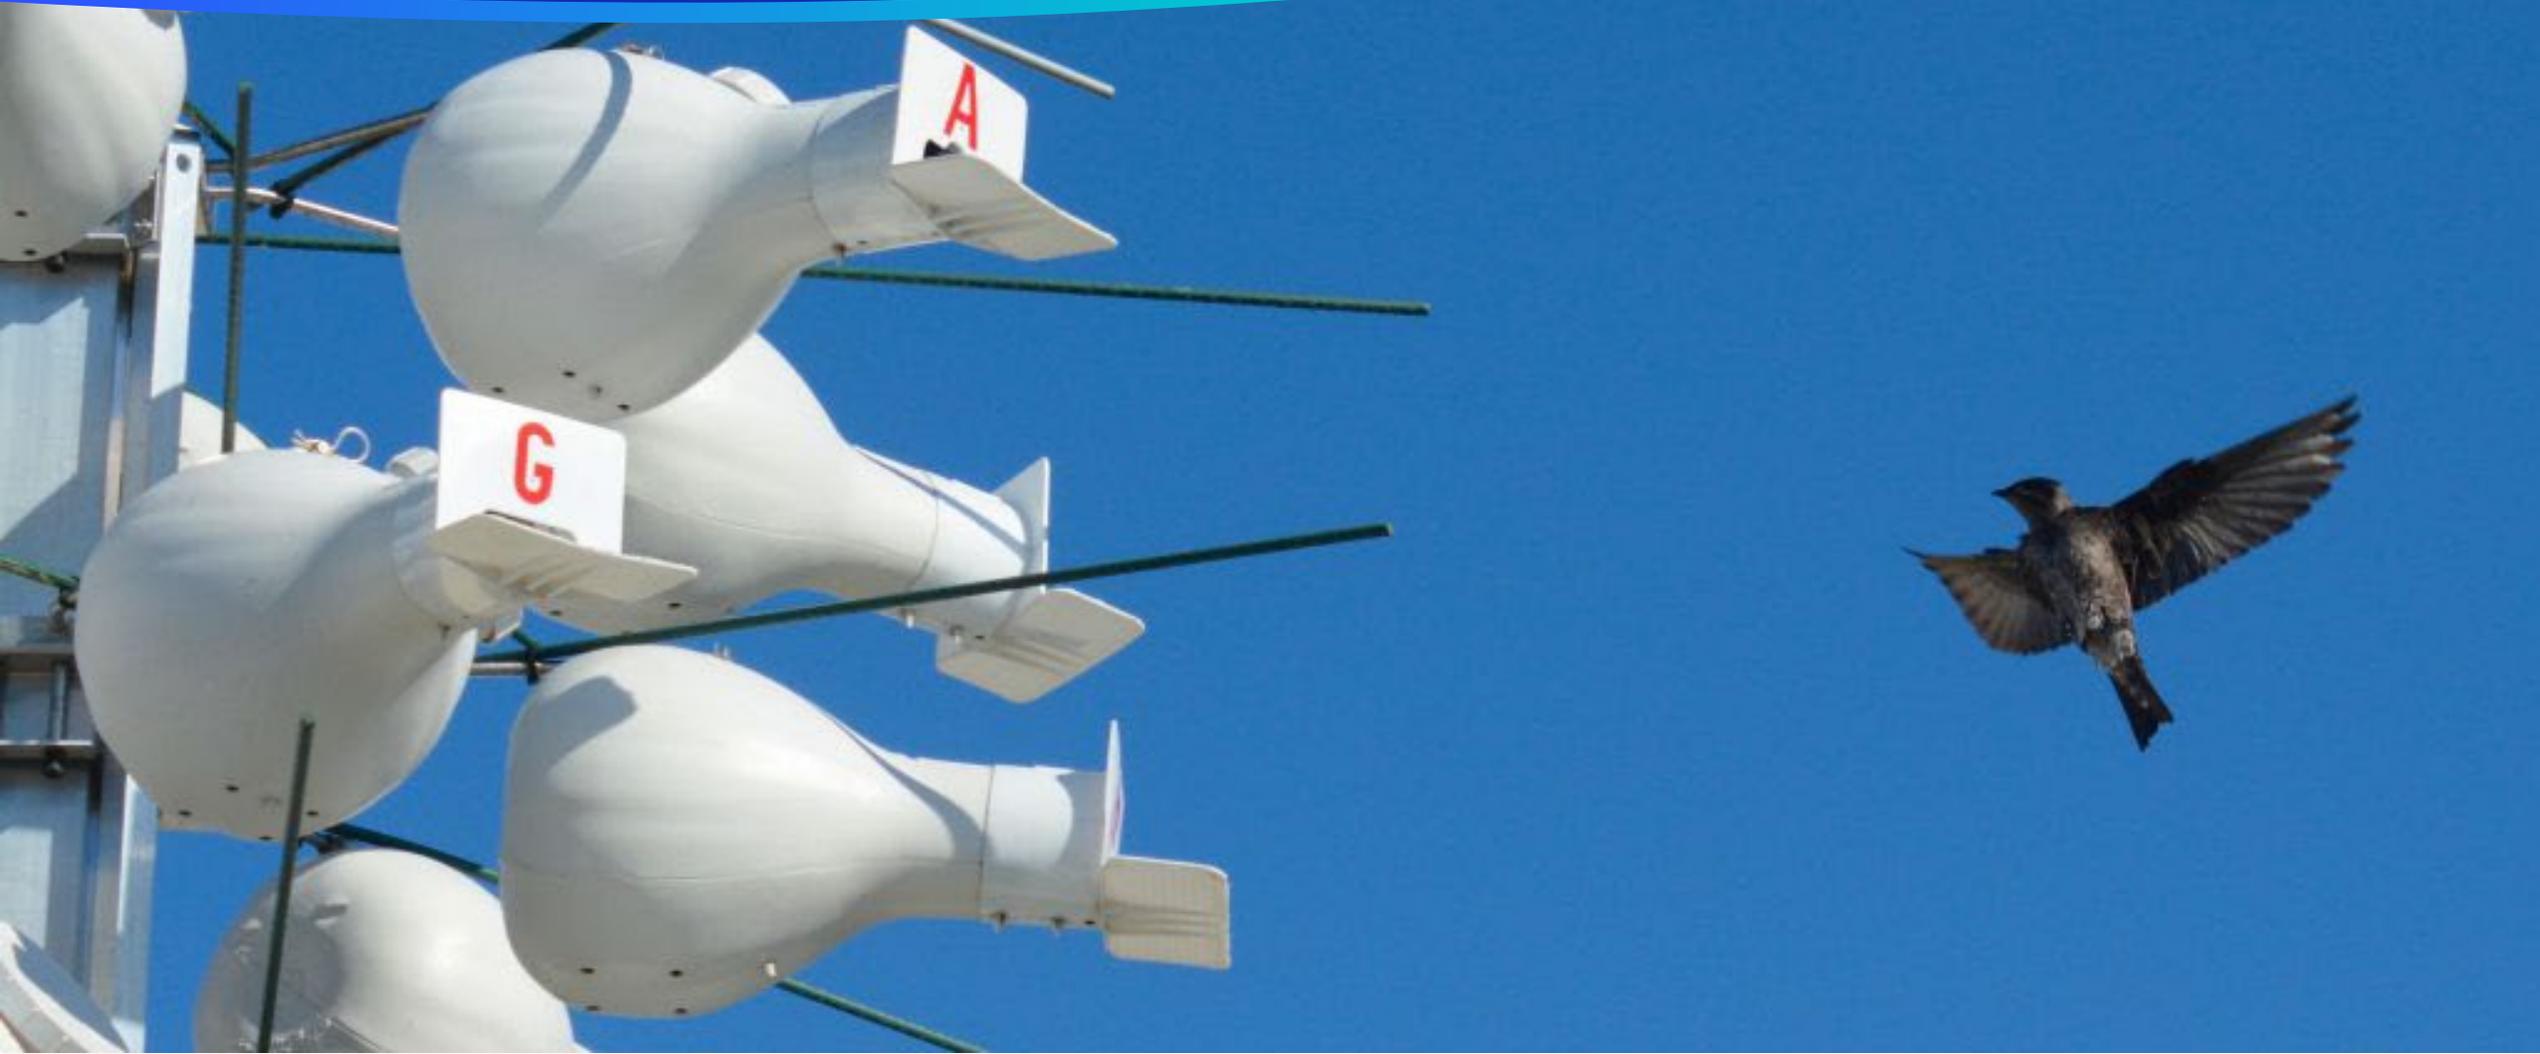

Disney has supported conservation work to protect 9 different species of gibbons and their habitats in Asia.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Over 4,000 purple martins have been banded at Walt Disney World Resort, helping scientists learn which birds return each year and how to protect this species.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

The Walt Disney Company is committed to sending zero waste to landfill for their wholly owned and operated parks and resorts by 2030. Learn more here.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney supports the Okapi Conservation Project's efforts to reduce deforestation in okapi habitats, distributing over 75,000 saplings to communities in a single year. Learn more about Okapi Conservation Project.

Disney has supported painted dog conservation efforts to dismantle snares and provide outreach programs across five countries in Africa.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney has supported primate conservation efforts across more than 35 countries, including grants to support all four subspecies of gorilla.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney supports land, water and grazing conservation efforts that benefit communities and elephants in Kenya and Tanzania. Learn more about Wildlife Conservation Society.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Disney scientists have recorded nearly 1.5 million sea turtle hatchlings emerging from nests near Disney's Vero Beach Resort.

Disney
PLANET
POSSIBLE

Photo produced under FWC Marine Turtle Permit 260